

Heat on for a hand

Picture: CORMAC HANRAHAN

Wildlife carer Michelle Phillips is desperate for help as extreme heat takes its toll on animals. The South Oakleigh Wildlife Shelter owner spent 20 hours a day during the recent heatwave attending to scores of sick and injured possums and there will be no let-up as temperatures soar again this week. REPORT PAGE 9